DESCRIPTION OF OFFENCE

64. In describing an offence respecting the sale or keeping for sale or other disposal of liquor, or the having, keeping, giving, purchasing or the consumption of liquor, in any information, summons, conviction, warrant, or proceeding under this Act, it is sufficient to state the sale or keeping for sale or disposal, having, keeping, giving, purchasing, or consumption of liquor, simply, without stating

Statement of certain facts unnecessary

- (a) the name or kind of liquor;
- (b) the price of the liquor;

- (c) any person to whom it was sold or disposed of;
- (d) by whom it was taken or consumed;
- (e) by whom it was purchased or received,

and it is not necessary to state the quantity of liquor so sold, kept for sale, disposed of, had, kept, given, purchased, or consumed, except in the case of offences where the quantity is essential, and then it is sufficient to allege the sale or disposal of more or less than that quantity. R.S.P.E.I. 1974, Cap. L-17, s.66.

Wording of offence	65. (1) The description of any offence under this Act or the regulations, in the words of this Act or the regulations or in words of like effect, is sufficient in law.
No need to negatived exception	(2) No exception, exemption, excuse or qualification as set out in this Act or the regulations is required to be set out or negatived in an information.
Burden of proving exception	(3) The burden of proving that an exception, exemption, excuse or qualification as set out in this Act or the regulations operates in favour of the defendant is on the defendant, and the prosecutor is not required, except by way of rebuttal, to prove that the exception, exemption, excuse or qualification does not operate in favour of the defendant, whether or not it is set out in the information. R.S.P.E.I. 1974, Cap. L-17, s.67; 2004,c.7,s.17.

EVIDENCE AND PRESUMPTIONS

Proof that money changed hands not necessary, where	66. (1) In proving the sale, disposal, gift or purchase, gratuitous or otherwise, or consumption of liquor, it is not necessary in any prosecution to show that any money actually passed or any liquor was actually consumed, if the provincial court judge hearing the case is satisfied that a transaction in the nature of a sale, disposal, gift, or purchase actually took place, or that any consumption of liquor was about to take place.
Proof of consumption evidence of sale of liquor to person consuming	(2) Proof of consumption or intended consumption of liquor on premises on which the consumption is prohibited, by some person not authorized to consume liquor thereon, is evidence that the liquor was sold or given to or purchased by the person consuming, or being about to consume, or carrying away the same, as against the occupant of the premises. R.S.P.E.I. 1974, Cap. L-17, s.69; 1975, c.78, s.3.
Packages required to be sealed, evidence of offence	67. Subject to sections 29 and 31, where a seal has been prescribed by regulation, the keeping or having of liquor by any person within the province in a package which has not been sealed with the seal in the manner prescribed by the regulations, shall be prima facie evidence that it was kept or had in violation of this Act. R.S.P.E.I. 1974, Cap. L-17, s.71; 1975, c.52, s.22.

68. If, in the process of any search under this Act, any person breaks any package or empties out or otherwise destroys or attempts to empty out or otherwise destroys or disposes of the contents of any such package, it is prima facie evidence that the package contained liquor and shall be so construed by any court or provincial court judge in any proceeding under this Act. R.S.P.E.I. 1974, Cap. L-17, s.73; 1975, c.78, s.3.

Package broken or destroyed during search, evidence of violation

69. In any prosecution under this Act or the regulations, where there is a production by a peace officer of a certificate or report signed or purporting to be signed by a Government of Canada or provincial analyst as to the analysis or ingredients of any liquor or other fluid or any preparation, compound, or substance, the certificate or report is conclusive evidence of each and every fact stated therein and of the authority of the person giving or making it without any proof of appointment or signature. R.S.P.E.I. 1974, Cap. L-17, s.74; 2006,c.16,s.63(8)(b).

Certificate of analyst conclusive proof of contents thereof

70. The provincial court judge trying a case, shall in the absence of proof to the contrary, infer that the liquor in question is intoxicating from the fact that a witness describes it as intoxicating, or as rum, whisky, gin, wine, ale, beer or by any other name that is commonly applied to liquor. R.S.P.E.I. 1974, Cap. L-17, s.75; 1975, c.52, s.23; 1975, c.78, s.3.

Inference that liquor intoxicating required

71. Any liquor that contains more than one-half of one per cent by volume at sixty degrees Fahrenheit of absolute alcohol shall conclusively be deemed to be intoxicating; but no inference shall be drawn that liquor that contains less than such one-half of one per cent of absolute alcohol is not intoxicating. R.S.P.E.I. 1974, Cap. L-17, s.76; 1975, c.52, s.23.

Idem

72. Upon the hearing of any charge of selling or purchasing liquor, or of unlawfully having or keeping liquor, contrary to this Act, the provincial court judge trying the case shall draw inferences of fact from the kind and quantity of liquor found in the possession of the person accused, or in any building, premises, vehicle, motor-car, automobile, vessel, boat, canoe, conveyance or place occupied or controlled by him, and from the frequency with which liquor is received thereat or therein or is removed therefrom, and from the circumstances under which it is kept or dealt with. R.S.P.E.I. 1974, Cap. L-17, s.77; 1975, c.52, s.24; 1975, c.78, s.3.

Provincial court judge to draw inferences of fact

Contents of package

74. The provincial court judge trying a case shall infer, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, that a container or package labelled with the word “liquor”, or with a word or words referred to in clause 1(k) to describe a type of liquor, contains what the label indicates. R.S.P.E.I. 1974, Cap. L-17, s.80,81,82,83,84; 1975,c.78,s.3; 1993,c.29,s.4; 1977,c.20,s.3; 2000,c.5,s.3; 2004,c.7,s.19.

Sections 75 to 77 repealed by 2004,c.7,s.18.

GENERAL ENFORCEMENT PROVISIONS

Evidence of earlier conviction admissible, where

78. Notwithstanding section 54 of the Evidence Act R.S.P.E.I. 1988, Cap. E-11, where in any prosecution it is alleged that the offence took place in a public place, and that place is a public place only because of a previous conviction of the occupant of premises otherwise it is a dwelling-place, then the prosecution may submit as part of its case evidence of the earlier conviction for the purpose only of establishing the nature of the premises, and no conviction shall be held invalid or quashed by reason only of evidence having been so tendered or received. R.S.P.E.I. 1974, Cap. L-17, s.85; 1977, c.39, s.1; 2004,c.7,s.5.

Rehearing conviction for subsequent offence where first offence set aside

79. In the event of a conviction for any second or subsequent offence becoming void or defective after the making thereof by reason of any previous conviction being set aside, quashed, or otherwise rendered void, the provincial court judge by whom the second or subsequent conviction was made shall summon the person convicted to appear at a time and place to be named, and shall thereupon, upon proof of the due service of the summons, if the person fails to appear, or on his appearance, amend the second or subsequent conviction, and adjudge the punishment as might have been adjudged had the previous conviction never existed; and the amended conviction shall thereupon be held valid to all intents and purposes as if it had been made in the first instance. R.S.P.E.I. 1974, Cap. L-17, s.86; 1975, c.78, s.3.

Second conviction under Act deemed second offence

80. In case any person who has been convicted of a violation of any provision of this Act is afterwards convicted of a violation of any other provision of this Act, the later conviction shall be deemed a conviction for a second offence within the meaning of this Act, and shall be dealt with and punished accordingly, although the two convictions may have been under different sections. R.S.P.E.I. 1974, Cap. L-17, s.87.

Several charges, set out in one information

81. Charges of several offences against this Act committed by the same person may be included in one and the same information, if the information and the summons or warrant issued thereon contain specifically the time and place of each offence. R.S.P.E.I. 1974, Cap. L-17, s.88.

82. One conviction for several offences, and providing a separate punishment for each, may be made under this Act, although the offences may have been committed on the same day; but the increased punishment hereinbefore imposed shall only be incurred or awarded in the case of offences committed on different days and after information laid for a first offence. R.S.P.E.I. 1974, Cap. L-17, s.89.

Penalty for each conviction

82.1 (1) Where, on any premises,

(a) a person commits an offence by contravening section 32, 33 or 37; and

(b) the person is convicted of the offence,

the provincial court judge making the conviction may, on application by the prosecutor, by order, declare the premises to be prohibited premises.

Prohibited premises-designation

(2) An order made under subsection (1) shall indicate

(a) the name of the person convicted;

(b) the address of the premises which are declared to be a prohibited place under the order; and

(c) the duration of the order, as determined under subsection (3).

Contents of order

(3) Subject to subsection (9), an order made under subsection (1) expires,

(a) in the case of a first offence by the person named in the order, one year after it is made;

(b) in the case of a second offence by the person named in the order, two years after it is made; and

(c) in the case of a third or subsequent offence by the person named in the order, three years after it is made.

Duration of order

(4) Where a provincial court judge makes an order under subsection (1), the judge shall forthwith cause a copy of the order to be given to

(a) the person convicted;

(b) the Commission;

(c) the owner of the premises, if the owner is not the person convicted; and

(d) the police force having jurisdiction over the area in which the prohibited premises is located.

Copy of order

(5) On receipt of a copy of an order made under subsection (1), the Commission shall forthwith cause a copy of the order to be published in the Gazette.

Owner deemed not to have complied

JUDICIAL REVIEW AND APPEAL

83. (1) No conviction or order, or warrant for enforcing it, or other process shall, upon application by way of judicial review or for habeas corpus or upon any appeal, be held insufficient or invalid for any irregularity, informality or insufficiency therein or by reason of any defect of form or substance, if the court or judge hearing the application or appeal is satisfied by a perusal of the depositions that there is evidence on which the provincial court judge might reasonably conclude that an offence against this Act has been committed.

Defect in proceedings, affect on conviction

(2) In particular the words “any defect in form or substance” include any excess or defect in the punishment imposed or order made, but the inclusion does not affect the generality of the words. R.S.P.E.I. 1974, Cap. L-17, s.90; 1975, c.78, s.3.

“Any defect in form or substance” defined

84. (1) The court or judge hearing any such application or appeal may, upon being satisfied as referred to in subsection 83(1)
