- (c) in subsection (11), by the deletion of the words “beer produced and bottled at the micro-brewery,” and the substitution of the words “beer produced at or on behalf of the micro-brewery and the display, sale and storage of liquor produced by or on behalf of another holder of a micro-brewery license or the holder of a winery license or distiller's license.”.

5. Section 69 of the regulations is revoked.

6. These regulations come into force on June 22, 2024.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

SECTION 1 repeals and replaces section 1 of the regulations to remove terms already defined in the Act, define terms used in both the Act and the regulations, add a definition for the term “production” and otherwise improve the wording.

SECTION 2 amends section 50.3 of the regulations to remove a reference to “bottling” as it is included as part of “production” and to add references to wine produced on behalf of the winery. It adds new subsections 50.3(10.1) and (10.2) to provide for the holder of a winery license to contract out production of up to 50 per cent of the winery's wine. It amends subsection 50.3(12) to allow the holder of a winery license to display, sell and store liquor produced by or on behalf of another licensed producer in an off-site retail outlet.

SECTION 3 amends section 50.5 of the regulations to add references to spirits produced on behalf of a distillery. It adds a new subsection 50.5(4.1) to provide for the holder of a distiller's license to contract out production of up to 50 per cent of the distillery's spirits. It amends subsection 50.5(6) to allow the holder of a distiller's license to display, sell and store liquor produced by or on behalf of another licensed producer in an off-site retail outlet.

SECTION 4 amends section 50.7 of the regulations to add references to beer produced on behalf of a micro-brewery. It adds new subsections 50.7(9.1), (9.2) and (9.3) to provide for the holder of a micro-brewery license to contract out production of up to 50 per cent of the micro-brewery's beer. It amends subsection 50.7(11) to allow the holder of a micro-brewery license to display, sell and store liquor produced by or on behalf of another licensed producer in an off-site retail outlet.

SECTION 5 revokes section 69 of the regulations, as the appointment of inspectors and their powers and duties are already provided for in the Act.

SECTION 6 provides for the commencement of these regulations.
