EXPLANATORY NOTES

SECTION 1 revokes two provisions of the regulations that are outdated and inconsistent with the Act and provides a definition for the Teachers' Superannuation Act.

SECTION 2 revokes provisions of the regulations that have become redundant as the concepts they deal with now are provided for in the Act. The section also clarifies when a reduction in pension required by the Act is to apply.

SECTION 3 amends the regulations to provide wording consistency with the Act by requiring a December 31st end date to be used for yearly calculation purposes and to establish that the annual effective date of indexation is July 1st.

SECTION 4 clarifies that a member who previously took a refund of contributions and becomes re-employed as a teacher is eligible to repay the refunded contributions. This section also revokes several provisions that are no longer consistent with how the cost to re-establish this refunded service is calculated.

SECTION 5 revokes a provision of the regulations that had allowed certain employees on leave to be paid a refund of all employee contributions to the Fund. The section also clarifies the types of unpaid leaves that are eligible for determining the salary that is deemed to be paid to a member under certain provisions of the Act. In addition the section explains the required minimum eligibility period that a member must have prior to purchasing service and the requirements of eligibility for sabbatical leave.

SECTION 6 provides for the commencement of these regulations.
